VARIOUS Impositions having been offered to the Public, under the Title of Lottery Almanacks, and Lottery Pocket-Books, &c. &c. It is thought necessary to insert a Clause from the last Lottery Act, by which it will be seen, that those Schemes are contrary to Act of Parliament; and Adventurers may consider what reliance there can be on the Promises of those, who, for a Shilling or eighteen-pence, are desperate enough to risk paying a Penalty of Five Hundred Pounds.

Extract from the LOTTERY ACT.

" AND be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That no person or persons shall sell the Chance or Chances, of any Ticket or Tickets in the said Lottery, or any Share or Shares of any Ticket or Tickets in the said Lottery, for a day, or part of a day, or for a longer time less than the whole time of drawing the Lottery, then to come; or shall receive any money whatsoever in consideration of the repayment of any sum or sums of money, in case any Ticket or Tickets in the said Lottery shall prove fortunate; or in case of any Chance or Event relating to the drawing of any Ticket or Tickets, in the said Lottery, either as to the Time of such Ticket or Tickets being drawn, or whether such Ticket or Tickets be drawn fortunate or unfortunate, or shall publish any Proposals for any such Purposes as aforesaid, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act: And all and every person and persons who shall offend in any of the said matters, shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, the sum of Five Hundred Pounds; to be recovered, with Costs of Suit, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in which no essoin, protection, privilege, or wager of law, or more than one imparlance, shall be allowed; one moiety whereof to be for the use of his Majesty, his heirs, or successors; and the other moiety, together with full Costs of Suit, to be paid to the person or persons who shall sue for the same; and every such sale or contract, and every agreement relating thereto, shall be, and is hereby declared null and void.
